INTRODUCTION

OneMillionsDollar.com is a global electronic commerce platform that sells precious metals, technological and digital products, has commercial agreements with hundreds of international jewelers for the distribution of the product. It is legally registered in the United States and Panama, has an ideal corporate team in different areas that gives it a multi-system and high-projection approach. OneMillionsDollar.com has created a BEP20 Token (OMD) in the Binance Smart Chain (BSC) network, with the aim of providing its own means of exchange in the commercialization of the products generated and / or distributed through our platform or other systems articulated and linked through commercial agreements. Our company has drawn a course of action with which it intends to give solidity to the OMD Token, provide our clients with great benefits due to the credibility, trust and value deposited from the initial stage of the project and establish a constant growth in usability, consolidation and strength of the Token even for future customers.

TOKEN OMD ROUTE OF ACTION

The project begins with the creation of 2,000 million OMD Token that will be distributed intelligently and always thinking about the sustainability, profitability and benefit of our customers. 100 Million OMD sold through our onemillionsdollar.com platform in 50,000 packages of 10 usd with 2,000 OMD each, with a unit value of 0.005 USD. Once the 50,000 packages have been exhausted, 400 million OMD will be progressively made available directly on exchange platforms. 1000 million coins will be distributed for 2 years or while supplies last, through the leasing plan (staking) available on our onemillionsdollar.com platform with an attractive monthly interest return of 15%, 10% and 7% according to the estimated time. of the lease. 500 million OMD will be protected by the company as a contingency plan to strengthen capitalization and generate liquidity.

TOKEN OMD AND THE GOLD TRADE

Gold is considered a store of value, its price is usually maintained over time regardless of the inflation of the currencies, this due to its scarcity that gives it a stable value and with very little margin of volatility, unlike other types of investments, gold is used to protect wealth and avoid financial devaluation. Not always the main gold producers are the same with the largest reserves, of the 10 main producers only 3 that are the United States, Russia and China are in the top ten countries with the largest reserves of gold. Countries with the Highest Gold Production China (380 tons), Australia (320 tons), Russia (300 tons), USA (190 tons), Canada (170 tons), Ghana (140 tons), Indonesia (130 tons) , Peru (120 tons), Mexico (100 tons), Kazakhstan (100 tons). Countries with the Largest Gold Reserve, United States (8,133 tons), Germany (3,366 tons), Italy (2,451 tons), France (2,436 tons), Russia (2,271 tons), China (1,948 tons), Switzerland (1,040 tons), Japan (765 tons), India (633 tons), the Netherlands (612 tons).

TOKEN OMD AND THE GOLD TRADE

Onemillionsdollar.com through its gold ecommerce where you can buy and sell 18 karat gold, 22 karat gold and investment gold, you get profits for each purchase and sale movement, which serve as financial strengthening to give sustainability to the projects undertaken by the company and of which the OMD Token is a part. The gold trading system carried out by onemilionsdollar.com is not new and has been in place for many years. What the company did was improve perceived weaknesses and integrate it into the system to give it greater fluidity, dynamism and conversion.

USABILITY TOKEN OMD

Onemillionsdollar.com through its gold ecommerce becomes a promoter of the OMD Token appreciation by including it as a means of payment with discounts of up to 5% of the total purchase value. This gives strength to the usability of the Token and promotes the demand that strengthens the final valuation. Onemilionsdollar.com through commercial agreements with an International Financial Holding enters into the commercialization, import and export of metallic waste, oil, aluminum, among other resources and materials with a great return on investment. In addition, it includes the OMD Token as a medium of exchange with great benefits that will give it a boost in the supply / demand relationship, especially in the related trade. Metallic waste is an environmental pollution hazard that affects most countries because it is generated mainly by the daily activities of human beings, poor management and mismanagement of waste. Faced with this problem there is a nascent market with great potential, governments are increasingly supporting companies dedicated to the collection, compaction and transformation of metal waste due to environmental policies, the cessation of soil exploitation activities due to their fatalities consequences demonstrated over time.

TOKEN OMD USABILITY

The profitability rates in the negotiations for the purchase and sale of metal waste are related in a ratio of 3 to 1, where up to 300% profit can be achieved only in the sale, but that percentage can be improved up to 20 to 1 when in addition the transformation of metallic waste into raw material is involved, with profits of up to 2000%. The constant commercialization through the International Financial Holding and the direct exchange relationship with benefits for the usability of the OMD Token, will boost the demand and therefore its appreciation, increasing the profits of our OMD-owning clients. In addition, commercial agreements will be implemented with large technology stores, art and fashion stores where you can pay at a discount using the OMD Token, all this classified by country and guaranteeing adequate delivery times of the products and / or services acquired through the allied stores. A Virtual Training Center in New Technologies will also be available where you can acquire courses, seminars, specializations in technological areas, all implementing payments with the OMD Token with discounted prices, all based on providing benefits, value, usability and demand.

TOKEN OMD AND THE NFTs

Onemillionsdollar.com has a technological banner focused on the development of digital products that are at the forefront, with a team that day by day studies the scenarios, trends and above all the opportunities that provide our clients with real benefits. The NFTs (Non-Fungible Token) have become a trend and are generating hundreds of new millionaires, the capitalization volumes related to this market are increasing more and more and onemillionsdollar.com has recognized the opportunity and has integrated it into the Token's usability path OMD NFT product development. Among the various NFT products, art, literature, music can be highlighted, but there is an area that is being explosive and with very high demand, such as video games. Video games over time have served as an element of entertainment and distraction, during its evolution it has been given a more educational approach to teaching - learning, but thanks to NFTs they have now become a way to generate money.

TOKEN OMD AND THE NFTs

Many young people earn hundreds of thousands of dollars playing their favorite video game, as it has become a very popular and fun form of work. Onemillionsdollars.com has started the development of its first NFT Video Game that will be integrated with the OMD Token trading platform, where you can play, earn rewards, buy items and accessories and even the users themselves will be able to market their rewards, skills and items won through an e-commerce module available in the same game with which you can auction or sell at a fixed price any of the acquisitions available on your property. With this implementation, we advance both in technological trends and in usability, demand and obtaining benefits for our users who hold the OMD Token.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Onemillionsdollar.com in its development and evolution path has contemplated future projects in order to strengthen the usability and valorization of the OMD Token. The next developments to be carried out in the short, medium and long term are listed below.

1) KYC study and approval software. Through the programming team, legal team and other specialized entities, work is being done on the creation and automation of the identity verification system, which aims to offer a reliable, efficient and automated service so that companies are protected by anti-fraud regulations. This service will have a much lower cost than the competition and can only be contracted with payments in OMD, thus guaranteeing the usability and demand of the Token.

2) Exchange OMD. As is well known by most of our users, the OMD token will be listed on a large number of prestigious Exchanges, but even so, we are working on building our own Exchange, which links the most recognized pairs and gives our users the certainty of always being available at some exchange house. Every day Exchanges change their regulations, usability laws and therefore there is always a risk and dependency. We want to be one step ahead and be completely autonomous and provide the greatest operational security to our users.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

3) OMD Wallet is a Decentralized, self-custodial wallet that puts Private Keys in the hands of our users. OMD Wallet's encrypted and secure architecture makes private keys and sensitive data available only on the User's specific Mobile device. OMD Wallet is a web browser extension. In other words, an online Hot wallet that works integrated with your default browser. It works for Google Chrome, Firefox, Opera and Brave. You can also download it as an App in the Google App store of your mobile phone. Access a significant number of Blockchains, allowing you to store many different cryptocurrencies and tokens, allowing you to exchange them with each other, without leaving the wallet. In addition, it has an interactive real-time price grapher. With which you can follow the evolution of all your cryptocurrencies. It can be used with various investment, DeFi and staking DApps. In addition, you will be able to choose the transfer networks (according to their rates) and stake cryptocurrencies. Which is like mining but in the cloud. And also install different DApps to get extra features with your cryptocurrencies. It also allows you to connect to your favorite Exchanges within the app.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

4) Video Games and NFTs. We have already started the construction of the first Video Game and NFT integrated to the OMD Token trade, but this will not be the only one, we are going to work on maintaining an active line of video games of various kinds that increasingly integrate the largest number of users, making that the popularity of the OMD Token increases and therefore its value and demand that will bring benefits to all users who own OMD.

5) Educational Social Network, is a digital platform that connects teachers and students and, at the same time, serves so that the students themselves and their families create a community in which they share their experience and their challenges when learning a subject. In our case, this social network will share all kinds of experiences in different areas, personal growth, motivational, spiritual, etc. People with knowledge and experience will give a space to offer the community their talents and thus financial benefits can be obtained from users, and with our Token Onemilliondollars (OMD). Users will be able to voluntarily buy gifts with OMD and give them to the speakers.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

6) OMD Metaverse. The Metaverse is, or is intended to be, a parallel world that will allow you to live a "second life" in virtual environments. Onemillionsdollar.com will start its Metaverse development at the end of 2022. This entire ecosystem will be using our OMD Token, and consequently it will bring a very high demand for it, thus generating an important valuation. This development will point to the educational part and will have experiences that help human beings to improve in various areas.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

7) OMD Blockchain. The technological developments that the company has projected in the short, medium and long term are an emblem of innovation and progress, which together with its corporate team have shaped by investing time, money and effort. The creation of the Blockchain OMD is already a reality and is in the planning phase. This Blockchain will be constituted with great advantages regarding the speed of confirmation of the chain of blocks, the low fees per transaction thanks to the improvements in the coding of the validation nodes, ease and intuition in the development and programming of the new tokens already the training of new programmers to massively exploit the benefits that this Blockchain brings to all humanity. The OMD Blockchain will be powered by clean energy such as geothermal, wind or solar energy, this decision leads us to centralize the initial operations of our Blockchain, while mining farms that meet the energy conditions established by the company are applied for. Within the work and projection schedule based on the availability of the Blockchain OMD, it is estimated that it will be in line with its main functions in the year 2023, in the same way the updates and improvements will continue day by day to provide our users with the best experience and functionality.

OMD TOKEN SUSTAINABILITY
